

RUNNING4HOPE 5K

In 1978, three brave women, Nancy, Helen & Gertrude, opened their homes and hearts, while risking their safety, for victims of domestic violence. All because they understood the importance of changing lives one person at a time.

Today, Domestic Violence Project, Inc. (DVPI) continues to offer safety, compassion, hope and healing to victims and their families.

On Sunday, April 25, 2010 at the Stark State College Advanced Technology Center, DVPI will hold the 5th annual Running4Hope. Its first year in the form of a 5K, this event will directly impact our community education department allowing our prevention educators to provide the necessary tools to help students develop healthy, affirming relationships and recognize the signs of abuse.

We are asking you to join us in honoring victims and creating awareness throughout the community as we partner to promote a better life. With a sponsorship you too can help provide safety and hope for a friend, a neighbor, an employee, or even a loved one.
